

Looking to improve your English?

Intensive English prepares students for IELTS, university pathways, career advancement, or for personal interest.

Intensive English

English programs designed to improve overall competency in English. These programs are intended to prepare students for exam courses such as Cambridge and TOEIC, university pathways, career advancement, or for personal interest.

Course Content

In the morning students study general English. There are six levels, from Elementary to Upper Advanced. The New Headway textbook (Oxford University Press) is used for Elementary to Upper Intermediate classes and the Cambridge Masterclass textbook is used for the Advanced and Upper Advanced classes (FCE, CAE, CPE). Students study reading, writing, communication, and structure as a part of this integrated course.

Afternoon Electives

Students registered in the Intensive Program (15 hours per week) choose one elective in the afternoon while those students registered in the Super Intensive Program (25 hours per week) choose two electives in the afternoon. Electives are specialized classes which allow students to focus on specific skills or needs. Elective classes include: Communication, Current Events and Media, Business English, Grammar, Pronunciation, Vocabulary Building, Writing, TOEFL, and TOEIC.

Course Length

Programs run from one to fifty weeks. Classes begin every Monday and students are encouraged to refer to the Program List to choose a suitable program.
